Lee County Supervisor of Elections to Mail Sample Ballots for the 2024 General Election

Lee County, Fla (Oct. 2, 2024) Beginning Thursday, Oct. 3, through Wednesday, Oct. 9, the Lee County Supervisor of Elections Office will mail approximately 335,000 sample ballots to Lee County voters who have not requested a vote-by-mail ballot for the 2024 general election.

The mailing features the voter's custom sample ballot for the general election and essential information about early voting and voting by mail.

Voters can also view their custom sample ballot and the all-inclusive sample ballot at <https://www.lee.vote/Election-Information/Sample-Ballots>.

"I encourage voters to thoroughly review and mark their sample ballot ahead of the Nov. 5 election," says Supervisor of Elections Tommy Doyle. "We have a two-page ballot containing six amendments. Preparation is key to ensuring shorter lines and an overall positive voting experience at the polls."

Our mission is to deliver superior election services to the voters of Lee County.
